

ANNOUNCEMENTS
January 14th, and 15th, 2012

There will be social time in the Parrish Hall following the worship. Please come, enjoy a cup of coffee or tea and the refreshment provided for today; take a few minutes to relax and visit with new friends and familiar faces.

ITEMS NEEDED FOR THE FOOD PANTRY: Following are the Pantry shelf needs this week: cereal, pancake mix, bulk cooking oil, liquid dish soap (no dishwasher soap), shampoo, and empty, clean bottles with caps 8 to 18 oz max.

Monday, January 16: Women's Reading Group 6:30 potluck; for information contact Sarah Smith, sarahleetr@embarqmail.com

The theme for this month is the Wise Men. Bring some information about them, their country, their careers, etc. The food will follow the same theme.

Tuesday, January 17: Bible 101, 7:00 pm

Tuesday, January 17: Al-Anon support group 8:00 – 9:00 pm

Wednesday, January 18, 11:00 am: St. Paul's Food Pantry.

Volunteers leave St. Aidan's at 11:00 am. Come join us as we unload food, merchandise shelves, break down bulk items, greet and assist each of our neighbors with their grocery shopping.

Wednesday, January 18, Back-Snack Packing 5:00: Contact: Fran Wheeler: frances.wheeler11@gmail.com

Wednesday, January 18: Redbook Evening Prayer 6:00 pm.

Come, learn more about Holy Scripture, the Book of Common Prayer and the prayers that form us as Christian.

Thursday, January 19, 7:00 pm: EFM class will meet at St. Aidan's; contact Russ Sifers: Russ@Valomilk.com

Thursday, January 19 : Al-Anon support group 8:00 – 9:00 pm

Saturday, January 21: Youth and Adults to St. Paul's Food Pantry; meet at the church at 8:30 to car pool.

Saturday, January 21: Quiet Day 9:00-11:00 am; Daughters of the King 11:00 am.

Saturday, January 21, 5:00: Holy Eucharist. If you are scheduled to work on Sunday or for some other reason are able to attend worship on Sunday, please plan to come on Saturday at 5:00 pm.

Sunday, January 22: St. Aidan's Annual Meeting with chili/soup/potluck following 10:00 worship.

Mission and Ministry

Budget expense projected per week for 2012: $3290.73

Projected pledge, plate, other per week $3097.25

The mission of St. Aidan's parish is to make disciples by proclaiming Christ as Lord and by making a difference in our community.

RECIPE FOR SPIRITUAL GROWTH

- Worship regularly---at least once a week.
- Meet God daily in a set time of prayer
- Participate in the educational program of the church
- Engage in individual study regularly, for improvement of the mind, for enlargement of Christian experience, and in preparation of Christian service.
- Serve regularly in the programs of this church and In the areas of Christian responsibility outside of this church
- Dedicate a tithe of income to the work of the Kingdom of God

From "Creating Congregations of Generous People" by Michael Durall, copyright 1999 by the Alban Institute, Inc.